

Age model

difference in apparent sedimentation rate between the two depth scales reflects the expansion of the spliced composite record in the CCSF-A scale relative to that of the curated sediment thickness (CSF-A scale). Regression lines are a linear fit to all data and forced through the origin, indicating a sedimentation rate of (A) 3.7 cm/ky and a long-term sedimentation rate of (B) 4 cm/ky.

